

Do not eliminate regulations on cross-broadcast ownership, we need more independent voices, not less. How would you feel if you only had three jelly bean flavors your whole life? I like choices and the public does too.